

The St. Louis County Historical Society and 1854 Treaty Authority present...

Gikinoo'amaagoowin!

Izhitwaawin gaye Gikendaasowinan maamawi

“Teachings: Culture and Science Come Together”

Tuesdays at 6-7pm

February 23rd - Moose

March 2nd - Climate Change

March 9th - Wild Rice

March 16th - Sturgeon

Click these links
to learn more

Connections to relatives (beings) and the landscape is integral to the Ojibwe way of life. The St. Louis County Historical Society and the 1854 Treaty Authority are creating virtual connection between science and Native heritage. A community member will explain the cultural significance of these species, and a biologist will share what 1854 is doing to protect them.

Continuing Education Credits (CEUs) are available

